

Geography for Year 6

The mountain environment

- What is a mountain environment?
- Where are mountains found?
- What are these places like?
- How does the weather compare in such places?
- What effect does this have on tourism?
- What would I need to do to plan a holiday in this area?

Volcanoes and earthquakes

- How is a volcano different from a mountain?
- What are the types of volcano?
- What are the good and bad things about living near a volcano?
- Where in the world are volcanoes found?
- What happens when an eruption occurs?
- What causes an earth tremor and earthquake?
- What and where are the plates?
- What happens in an earthquake?

European Union and the United Nations Organisation

- Who they are and what they do.
- Why they were set up.
- How they work
- Who benefits from these organisations?

Mapping

- Looking at plans and maps.
- Making detailed plans and maps.
- Location and direction.
- Measuring scale on maps.
- Landscape, relief, urban.
- Grid maps as records.

Population and settlement

- Differences between rich and poor countries.
- Effects on economy of population growth.
- Lifestyles of people in rich and poor countries.
- Third world countries and developing countries.